ABOUT ORGANISERS

DELNET - DEVELOPING LIBRARY NETWORK

DELNET is a major resource sharing library network in India connecting more than 6,800 libraries in twenty nine states, nine Union territories in India and few other countries. These libraries include academic libraries (Universities and Colleges), Government libraries, libraries of R & D organizations, Special Libraries, among others. It is located in Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) Campus, New Delhi. DELNET provides access to millions of resources through the Discovery Portal comprising e-books, e-journals, and other resources including more than 3.5 crore records of books, journals, periodical articles, video-recordings, sound recordings, theses and dissertations, etc. It also provides access to more than 1 crore full-text e-books, e-journals, e-articles, etc. through Knowledge Gainer Portal. DELNET offers the Inter-library Loan and Document Delivery Service which is the best in South Asia. The service is being offered to promote resource sharing at the national and international levels among member-libraries of DELNET. DELNET also undertakes the creation of digital libraries, offers support to libraries in this field and gives consultancy services to institutions for a variety of activities including modernisation and automation of libraries. In order to modernise and network libraries, DELNET provides DelPlus - the Library Management Software to member-libraries free of charge. The software conforms to international standards. DELNET also offers support for installing Koha software to its member libraries.

DELNET has coordination units in Bengaluru, Hyderabad and Pune.

“Networking Libraries, Sharing & Spreading Knowledge” remains the prime mission of DELNET for past 28 years of its operation.

DELNET arranges training programmes, lectures, workshops and the National Convention on Knowledge, Library and Information Networking (NACLIN) every year.

Krishnadas Shama Goa State Central Library

The Goa State Central Library occupies the pride of the place among the public libraries in India, especially for its collection on Goan history and culture. The Central Library is the oldest Public Library in India established on 15th September 1832 by Viceroy Dom Manuel de Portugal e Castro as ‘Publica Livraria’. On 15th February 1897 the status of library was raised to that of a ‘National Library’ and renamed as ‘Bibliotheca Nacional de Nova Goa’. The collection of pre-liberation period consists mainly of books and journals in Portuguese, French, Latin, English and very few books in local language like Konkani and Marathi. The total pre-liberation collection is about 40,000 volumes.

The earliest book available is Repertorium Singularium Super Toto Codice Lugdini by Baldi published in 1539. The collection of the library has manuscripts and codices in Portugues, Castilian, Latin, Tamil, Ceylonese, Canary and Konkani dating since 17th and 18th century.

Further, State Central Library is acting as a repository of books published in State under the provision of the Delivery of Books Act, 1954. To support the library movement the Government of Goa has passed and enacted the Goa Public Libraries Act, 1993.

Present Status of Library:

Government in an effort to inculcate reading habits among the youth and to encourage research has set up a six floor library in the heart of the city at Patto, Panaji – Goa. Central Library is the State Library at the apex of Public Library system in Goa. It has under its control Seven Taluka Libraries and one District Library in South. Besides, Goa has altogether 154 Village libraries which includes NGO’s Libraries, Village Panchayat libraries and 4 Government Village Libraries.

The library is named as Krishnadas Shama Goa State Central Library. The library is named after Krishnadas Shama (Keloshikar) the founder of Konkani Prose and known as Father for Konkani literature, to recognise his contributions in the field of literature in 16th century. It covers a built up area of 12,100 Sq mts. The library has more than 2.8 lakhs books in different languages like English, Hindi, Marathi and Konkani and Portuguese since its inception. The Library is considered to be the biggest repository of books in Portuguese language in Asia. The library has Manuscripts & Imprints which includes languages like Tamil, Castilian, Ceylonese, Canary etc. The library offers modern facilities like Smart - Card, Self-Check-in/Check-out Kiosk, Book Drop Box using RFID Technology and ultra-modern Book Conservation Laboratory.

HOW TO REACH GOA

Goa has become one of the inevitable tourists' destinations. As it is nestled between hills and seas, its beauty enthralms the travelers. With so much to offer including the swaying palm trees, the glittering sands and unmatched delicacies, Goa is indeed one of the most favoured destinations of India. The place is easily accessible by air, road, and rail.

By Air: Nearest airport from Goa (Panjim) is Dabolim Airport at a distance of 29 Km. Dabolim Airport serves regular flights from Mumbai, Bangalore, Delhi and other major cities of India. You can hire a taxi to reach to your destination further. It also has International flights connectivity.

By Train: Goa's main railway stations are in Madgaon, and Vasco Da Gama. Most of these railway stations are well connected with the major cities and towns of the country. You can easily get taxis and traveler bus from these stations.

By Road: There are numerous State and privately owned buses which run in and around the state. You can easily get buses to commute to nearby cities and towns from Goa.

ABOUT GOA

Goa, the smallest Indian state and much-loved tourist place of India, is situated in the coastal Konkan region and on the banks of Arabian Sea which forms its western coast.

Goa is known for its striking landscape, famous beaches in India, astounding monuments and churches and bustling Goa nightlife. Goa is one of the most visited tourist places in India especially on weekends, as it is not very far from Mumbai and having Panaji as its capital and Vasco da Gama as the largest city. It attracts a large number of tourists from all over the world, round the year. There are several places to visit & tourist attraction points in Goa.

PLACES TO VISIT IN AND AROUND GOA

Calangute Beach: Calangute beach in Goa is also known as the Queen of Beaches. It is 15 km from the capital city Panjim. It is one of the most popular beach in Goa with a host of facilities to cater to visitors, including golden sand along the beach and water sports.

Shantadurga Temple: Shri Shantadurga Temple is situated at the foothill of Kavalem village in Ponda Taluka, Goa. The temple is dedicated to Shantadurga, the goddess who mediates between Vishnu and Shiva. The deity is also called 'Santeri'.

Church of Basilica of Bom Jesus: The Basilica of Bom Jesus is the most famous of all the churches in Old Goa. It contains the relics of St. Francis Xavier, Patron saint of Goa, Apostle of the Indies. He was known as Goencho Saib by most of the people of Goa.

Aguada Fort: Standing on the crumbling ramparts of what was once the most formidable and impregnable of the Portuguese forts in India, one looks out at a panoramic ocean vista, witnessing the confluence of the Mandovi River and Arabian Sea, over which the fort has kept watch for more than four hundred years.

Palolem Beach: Palolem Beach is a stretch of white sand on a bay in Goa. It is known for its calm waters and for its nightlife, including "silent discos".
